MARY HELEN MCCOY FINE ANTIQUES CELEBRATES GRAND OPENING IN CHARLESTON

CHARLESTON, S.C., Apr. 30, 2008 – In an elegant evening event on Friday, April 25, Mary Helen McCoy Fine Antiques, along with the trustees of Historic Charleston Foundation, celebrated its grand opening at 120 King Street in Charleston. The gallery is one of the nation’s premier sources for fine and unusual, period, 16th- to 19th-century French furniture and decorative arts. The newly renovated 3,200 square-foot showroom, which is more than double the size of its former location in Birmingham, Ala., has been open since Monday, March 10, 2008, but officially celebrated the relocation this past Friday. For the month following the grand opening, Mary Helen will donate 10 percent of revenue to Historic Charleston Foundation.

“We were very pleased with the success of the grand opening event,” said Mary Helen McCoy. “What a wonderful way to celebrate becoming a part of Charleston!”

The evening’s festivities attracted such influential people as The Honorable Joseph P. Riley, Jr., Mayor of Charleston, and editors from Charleston magazine, Garden & Gun magazine, Greenville magazine, The Charleston Mercury and The Post and Courier, among many others.

Mary Helen McCoy Fine Antiques is open Monday to Saturday, 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. For more information, call 843-577-6445, fax 843-577-6447, e-mail MHMcAntg@aol.com or visit www.maryhelenmccoy.com
